

On Somebody

Ava Max

Yeah (Yep)
Yeah (Ah-ah)Heartbreak, heartbreak is a motherfucker
I know, I know but I found a way to Deal though, deal though, it took work
To get the wheels are moving on, wheels are moving onCan't stay, can't stay on a used lover
I know, I've been better off without it
You though, you thought it took work
To get these feelings turning off, feelings turning offOh, my, my, my, my, my
I see you moving side to side, side, side, side, side
Two hands on you that aren't mine, mine, mine, mine, mine
You never know how much you're on somebody
'Til they're on somebody else
So my, my, my, my, my
I wish eyes knew how to lie, lie, lie, lie, lie
And tell my body I'll be fine, fine, fine, fine, fine
You never know how much you're on somebody
'Til they're on somebody elseHeartbreak, heartbreak is a motherfucker
Lay low, lay low, that's how they tell you to Let go, letting go went out the window
Soon as I saw you pull up from two (Ooh, yeah)I can feel the break of every wave crash into me (Crashing)
Wishing I went somewhere else and left you in my dreams (Yeah)Oh, my, my, my, my, my
I see you moving side to side, side, side, side, side
Two hands on you that aren't mine, mine, mine, mine, mine
You never know how much you're on somebody
'Til they're on somebody else
So my, my, my, my, my
I wish my eyes knew how to lie, lie, lie, lie, lie
And tell my body I'll be fine, fine, fine, fine, fine
You never know how much you're on somebody
'Til they're on somebody elseI can feel the break of every wave crash into me (Me)
Wishing I went somewhere else and left you in my dreams (Haha)Oh, my, my, my, my, my
I see you moving side to side, side, side, side, side (Ooh)
Two hands on you that aren't mine, mine, mine, mine, mine
You never know how much you're on somebody
'Til they're on somebody elseSo my, my, my, my, my
I wish eyes knew how to lie, lie, lie, lie, lie
And tell my body I'll be fine, fine, fine, fine, fine
You never know how much you're on somebody
'Til they're on somebody elseOh, when you're on somebody
When you're on somebody (Oh baby, on somebody else)
Oh, when you're on somebody when you're on somebody

'Til they're on somebody else
