

Omen (feat. Sam Smith) [Claptone Remix]

Disclosure

I'm feeling something, something different
 When you left, the picture changed
 I was blinded, I'm not envisioned
 The same face in a different frame It's an omen
 Caught my baby crying
 Saw the silver lining
 It must be an omen
 Needed you to show me
 Without you I am lonely My mind would rule my heart
 I didn't pay attention to the light in the dark
 It left me torn apart
 But now I see your tears are an omen
 Oh-oh-oh-oh
 Oh-oh-oh-omen You were waiting, I was vacant You left before my eyes
 Then it hit me, you're relocating
 And I need you by my side
 It's an omen Caught my baby crying
 Saw the silver lining
 It must be an omen
 Needed you to show me
 Without you I am lonely
 My mind would rule my heart I didn't pay attention to the light in the dark
 It left me torn apart
 But now I see your tears are an omen
 My mind would rule my heart
 I didn't pay attention to the light in the dark
 It left me torn apart
 But now I see your tears are an omen
 Oh-oh-oh-oh Oh-oh-oh-omen
 (Woah, now love)
 Oh-oh-oh-oh
 Oh-oh-oh-omen
 (I didn't pay attention to the light in the dark)
 Oh-oh-oh-oh
 Oh-oh-oh-omen
 (But now I see your tears are an omen)
 Oh-oh-oh-oh
 Oh-oh-oh-omen
 (Now I see your tears are an om-omen)
 Oh-oh-oh-oh
 Oh-oh-oh-omen
