

Gavin James

You cut me down into little pieces before I could stand up so i built a wall out of all my secrets and now its opened up and I remember the cold, cold mornings and I remember the rainy afternoons when I was dreaming that I was 22
that I was 22
I wish I was older when I was young but half the worlds asleep til the morning came and took me away now i'm longing
I wish that I had found out faster I never thought it's me they're after when I was dreaming that I was 22 when I was 22, oh
la da da da oooo
oooo
and I remember the cold, cold mornings I never thought it was me they're wanting when I was dreaming oh la da da when I was dreaming ohhh
when I was dreaming that I was 22
that I was 22

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://greatlyrics.net/>