

I Can't Believe (Featuring Faith Evans)

112

I can't believe that love has gone away from me
I can't believe that love has gone away
I can't believe that love has gone away from me
I can't believe that love has gone away
I can't believe you've gone away Hours, days and nights I sat and I prayed
Never thought that I would see this day
And I didn't think that it could hurt so bad
A broken heart was never meant for me Lord, let it please rain on my face
So that it could wash away all my tears
If this is the house that love is in let me leave
'Cuz I don't wanna be hurt like this again
I can't believe
I can't believe that love has gone away from me
I can't believe that love has gone away
I can't believe that love has gone away from me
I can't believe that love has gone away
I can't believe you've gone away Many times I watched you while you were asleep
With thoughts of livin' life with only you
If I had read your mind and things could have changed
I'll give anything to be with you again All I ever wanted was to see your face
And hear your pretty voice from day to day
Now that you've gone I have no reason for feelin' that way
I can't believe you've gone away I can't believe that love has gone away from me
I can't believe that love has gone away
I can't believe that love has gone away from me
I can't believe that love has gone away
I can't believe you've gone away
When I look back on the times we've shared
Our life was okay, now what else could come down
Don't you know you were my love, my only love
And I can't believe that you've gone away I can't believe that love has gone away from me
I can't believe that love has gone away
I can't believe that love has gone away from me
I can't believe that love has gone away
I can't believe you've gone away I can't believe that love has gone away from me
I can't believe that love has gone away
I can't believe that love has gone away from me
I can't believe that love has gone away
I can't believe you've gone away I can't believe that love has gone away from me
I can't believe that love has gone away
I can't believe that love has gone away from me
I can't believe that love has gone away

I can't believe you've gone away
