Ciara

Girls, get your money,

All my girls get their money,

You don't wanna miss this, you can't posses this I know you wanna touch this, I know you wanna love this I know you wanna fuck this, you tell me would you wanna wife this They always wanna holla but they ain't got no dollars Girls, get your money, all my girls get your money
All my girls get their money,

They always wanna holla but they ain't got no dollars
They always wanna holla but they ain't got no dollars
Yes, they always wanna holla but they ain't got no dollars
They always wanna holla but they ain't got no dollars I know you wanna kiss this, I know you wanna press this
I bet you wanna peppy down, I bet you wanna peppy now I see you wanna comp this, I see you wanna pump this I bet you wanna handcuff it, yeah, I know you love it Hands on my hip, all up in the club
The boy's tryna fall in love I always wanna take you back to the crib but Never wanna give you enough I always talking 'bout the X
And how she really didn't know a thing
Well, I like a man who can spend that cash [Incomprehensible] on me
Girls, get your money,
all my girls get your money
All my girls get their money,
all my girls get their money, their money They always wanna holla but they ain't got no dollars
They always wanna holla but they ain't got no dollars
Yes, they always wanna holla but they ain't got no dollars
They always wanna holla but they ain't got no dollars All my girls get their money, all my girls get their money, their money They always wanna holla but they ain't got no dollars
They always wanna holla but they ain't got no dollars
Yes, they always wanna holla but they ain't got no dollars
They always wanna holla but they ain't got no dollars Holla, dollars, holla, got no dollars Holla, got no dollars, holla, got no dollars Girls, get your money,
all my girls get your money
All my girls get their money,
all my girls get their money, their money They always wanna holla but they ain't got no dollars
They always wanna holla but they ain't got no dollars
Yes, they always wanna holla but they ain't got no dollars

They always wanna holla but they ain't got no dollars
