

I Do

Morgan Evans

Not everyone gets drunk
Without a drop of wine
Or a sip of ninety proof
But I do
Not everybody loves
Getting caught at red lights
They got no one to lean on to
But I do You don't know
How many times a minute you cross my mind
And I don't know
What I did so right
Just when I think it couldn't get any better
To be the man standing in my shoes
There you go walking in in a new dress
Saying do you like this
And baby I do
Wanna hold you forever
No I ain't ever been so sure
Just when I think I couldn't love you any more
Baby, I do I do I do
Baby, I do I do I do Yeah girl, you're beautiful
Just takes one look to see
But no one sees the side of you
That I do
Like your hair in a mess in the morning
That wake up no makeup smile
That I can't believe I opened my eyes too
But I do
Just when I think it couldn't get any better
To be the man standing in my shoes
There you go walking in in a new dress
Saying do you like this
And baby I do
Wanna hold you forever
No I ain't ever been so sure
Just when I think I couldn't love you any more
Baby, I do, I do, I do
Baby, I do, I do, I do No I don't ever fall like this
I never found myself
Wanting to jump in so quick
But there's something different 'bout you
Cause I do, I do Just when I think it couldn't get any better

To be the man standing in my shoes
I start thinking 'bout you in a white a dress
Front of that church kiss
Saying I do
Wanna hold you forever
No I ain't ever been so sure
Just when I think I couldn't love you any more
Baby, I do, I do, I do
Baby, I do, I do, I do,
Baby, I do wanna hold your forever
I don't ever wanna let you go
And everyday I'm gonna let you know
How much that I do, I do, I do
Cause baby, I do, I do, I do
