

Babylon Feeling (Feat. Carlos Santana)

Everlast

My heart is broke, my will is gone
Fell in love with a woman named Babylon
She hooked me to the gills
With all of her forbidden thrills I call her baby for short then I ramble on She'll forget about me
My soul is high, my mind is free
Met a shorty with some back call her destiny
She showed me all my fates My stream of conscious navigates
I orbit around the sun at high velocity Don't forget about me Don't forget about sweet thing
Won't you save my soul
Pretty lady, won't you take me home
Sweet thing
Won't you save my soul
Pretty lady, won't you take me home... tonight My arms are heavy, my body's tense Got the hots for this honey named confidence
She points out all of my flaws
Breaking all of her favorite laws
Never speaks a word in my defense Just forget about me
My spirit's weak, my lust will thrive Got a thing for this bitch
Said her name is Alive
She controls me with her fear
My prayers fall on her cold deaf ear
She says have a good time and take your dive Just forget about me
Just forget about
Sweet thing, won't you save my soul (Yeah) Pretty lady, won't you take me home
Sweet thing won't you save my soul (Yeah)
Pretty lady won't you take me home... tonight
I've got a Babylon feelin'
I've got a Babylon feelin' I've got a Babylon feelin'
I'm feelin' Babylon My heart is broke, my will is gone
Fell in love with a woman named Babylon
She me to the gills
All of her forbidden thrills
I call her baby for short, then I ramble on
And I ramble on I've got a Babylon feelin'
I've got a Babylon feelin'
I've got a Babylon
Feelin', Feelin', Feelin', yeah
I've got a Babylon
Feelin', Feelin', Feelin', yeah
I've got a Babylon
Feelin', Feelin', Feelin', yeah
I've got a Babylon

Feelin', Feelin', Feelin', yeah
