

Daughter's Wedding Song

Dale Watson

Chorus: Today I'm giving my daughter away
It's her time to make a new start.
Today I'm giving my daughter away
With her hand the key to my heart.
I've seen her stumble and I've seen her fall
And I've wiped the tears from her eyes
I stood behind her through it all
And my heart swells up with pride

Chorus: Today I'm giving my daughter away
It's her time to make a new start.
Today I'm giving my daughter away
With her hand the key to my heart.
You know it's hard to let go of that little girl
Whose whole body used to sleep on my chest.
That lady's my baby and I hope he knows
She deserves only the best.

Chorus: Today I'm giving my daughter away
It's her time to make a new start.
Today I'm giving my daughter away
With her hand the key to my heart.
Chorus: Today I'm giving my daughter away
It's her time to make a new start.
Today I'm giving my daughter away
With her hand the key to my heart.

Whoa...
