

Violet City

Mansionair

Wide awake in this violet city
Where it watches over me
It hurts to say that I want you with me
Just draped across my frame I can't help myself
The moment that I let it go
Is when I find I'm in control (in control)
I need something else
The moment that I let it go
Is when I find I'm in control (in control)
In control (in control)
I can't help myself
The moment that I let it go
Is when I find I'm in control (I'm in control)
In a maze of my expectation
I just feel so far away
Holding on to these empty spaces
As I try to find my way
'Cause I'm somewhere else
Surrounded by the city shelf
Trying to appease all my desires
'Cause I'm somewhere else
Believe me I'm beside myself
I've been trying to change
I can't help myself
The moment that I let it go
Is when I find I'm in control (in control)
I need something else
The moment that I let it go
Is when I find I'm in control (I'm in control)
I can't help myself
The moment that I let it go
Is when I find I'm in control (in control)
Is when I find I'm in control (in control)
