

There's a Girl

Trent Harmon

There's a girl somewhere in Tupelo
Who's with a guy she barely knows
Who'd probably sell his soul for a kiss
There's a girl somewhere in Arkansas
Who's talking with a southern drawl
And guy who can't stop staring at her lips
Ain't it crazy how they make us all so crazy. Why would we drive 600 miles one way
Blow through cash that we ain't made
Get tattoos, wash our trucks
Push and press our luck
Why would we ask when we know we can't dance
Show our hands and change our plans
Lose our minds, break our hearts
And learn to play guitar
Why does any man do anything in the whole damn world
Cause there's a girl
Cause there's a girl
?
?There's a girl somewhere with eyes so blue
You know a call just won't do
So here I am on Highway 45
First girl to get me to ask myself
How I'd been with anyone else
Any other minute of my life
Ain't it something how they get us doing something
Why would we drive 600 miles one way
Blow through cash that we ain't made
Get tattoos, wash our trucks
Push and press our luck
Why would we ask when we know we can't dance
Show our hands and change our plans
Lose our minds, break our hearts
And learn to play guitar
Why does any man do anything in the whole damn world
Cause there's a girl
Cause there's a girl
Ain't it crazy how they get us going crazy
Why would we drive 600 miles
one way
Blow through cash that we ain't made
Get tattoos, wash our trucks
Push and press our luck
Why would we ask when we know we can't dance
Show our hands and change our plans

Lose our minds, break our hearts
And learn to play guitar
Why does any man do anything in the whole damn world
Cause there's a girl
Cause there's a girl?
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://greatlyrics.net/>