

Beyond Love

Beach House

The first thing that I do before I get into your house
I'm gonna tear off all the petals from the rose that's in your mouth
I wanted to find ever since I didn't understand

They take the simple things inside you
And put nightmares in your hands
This thing comes to me
Heartbreak did this

He was made to believe
That he should live without it
Our nerves would've seen
No change in his

Vision sprung into dreams
Of a world left without it
I really wanna know

I really do breathe
We really do breathe
We really wanna know

The last thing that she sees before they turn off all the lights
Was there, net up in the corner with the spiders made of night

We really wanna know
Our nerves would've seen
And I can't live without it

Could you ever believe
I really wanna know
I really wanna know
