

Promesses (feat. Kaleem Taylor)

Tchami

If the rain was coming, aye
Will you break my heart?
Break this promise?
If the rain was coming
Will you break my heart?
YeahhIf the rain was coming
Will you break my heart?
Break this promise?
If the rain was coming
Will you break my heart?
Yeahh
If emptiness is in your promises
Then there's no need to even promise me
If emptiness is in your promises
Then there's no need to even promise meOoh yeah, I don't need you too now
What's the deal, aw yeah, won't you be, promise me
Ooh yeah, I don't need you too now
What's the deal, aw yeah, won't you be, promise meIf the rain was coming
Will you break my heart?
Break this promise?
If the rain was coming
Will you break my heart?
YeahhIf emptiness is in your promises
Then there's no need to even promise me
If emptiness is in your promises
Then there's no need to even promise me
If emptiness is in your promises
Then there's no need to even promise me
If emptiness is in your promises
Then there's no need to even promise me
If emptiness is in your promises
Then there's no need to even promise me
