

Lost John

Van Morrison, Lonnie Donegan & Chris Barber

Ha! This here's a story about, Lost John Lost John done flew the coop! Hee! How many long gone? Lost John standin' by the railroad track

Waitin' for the freight train to come back
Freight train came back and never made no stop
Lost John thought he'd have to ride on top Well, he's long, long, long gone (woo-yeah)
And he's long, long, long gone Yeah, lost John came into the country woman's house
Sat down there as quiet, just as quiet as a mouse
She said, 'Now Mister Lost John, be my friend
Be my friend up until the end.'
Well ('cause) he's long, long, long gone
(Well, I'm talkin' 'bout it)
Now he's long, long, long gone

(Yeah, came into the country woman's house) Lost John came into a country woman's house
Sat there as quiet, quiet as a mouse
Said, 'Mister Lost John be my friend
Be my friend until the end.' Well, I'm long, long, long gone
Well, I'm (he's) long, long, long gone Yeah, she said
'Lost John a-don't you have no fear
I'm sending for the porter, gonna buy some beer'
He said, 'Now woman don't you buy no beer
The cop's is on my trail and-a soon be here' Well, I'm long, long, long gone
(Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
Well, he's long, long, long gone

(Makin' a pair of shoes of his own) Well, they caught Lost John
Put 'em in the pen
Summer break and gone
And now he's out again If anybody asks you
Who sung this song
Tell 'em Lonnie Donegan
Been 'ere and gone Well, he's long, long, long gone (ooone)
Well, he's long, long, long gone (one more time, ah) Well, he's long, long, long gone
(He's goin', he's goin')
Well he's long, long, (long) gone (Bib-idy-ba-ba-ba-ba-baah) Hey, baby!
(Thank you)

Thank you! Oh yeah, Mike (yeah) VM: Thank you very much.
Now we would like to have a surprise for you tonight
I'd like to bring on a friend of mine from way back, Dr John (Applause from audience) Yeah.
We're gonna do this-a, we're gonna do this song
That was written by a, while back by this-a British-a trumpet player/guitarist
Ken Colyer (Yeah, that's the man)
Goes like this One, okay
