The Journey Home

Sarah Brightman

[Foreign content] [Foreign content] The journey home is never too long Your heart arrives before the train The journey home is never too long Some yesterday's always remainI'm going back to where My heart was light Where my pillow was a ship I sailed through the night The journey home is never too long When open arms are waiting there The journey home is never too long There's room to love and room to spareI want to feel The way that I did then And think my wishes Through before I wish againNot every boat you come across Is one you have to take Now sometimes standing still can be The best move you ever make[Foreign content] The journey home is never too long Home hopes to heal the deepest pain The journey home is never too long Your heart arrives before the train[Foreign content] [Foreign content] [Foreign content]
