

Good Girls (feat. Big Sean)

Nick Jonas

Take another photo
Post it for the world to see
People that you don't know
Who the hell you tryna please? If you lack a credit card
Will you never see the shot?
Doctor, doctor, hide the scars
Please
Those Hype Williams videos
Taught you how to wear your clothes
Drop it low, touchin' your toes
When did all these good girls decide to be bad?
Dancin' up on the table, gettin' back at your dad
Who's the asshole that told you
That's what you had to do? Yeah
When did all these good girls decide to be bad?
You know I love your skin, but is it deeper than that?
Don't wanna blame you for it, cause that's what we ask of you
Yeah, but when did all these good girls Goin' out to the girls in the club who put it down
You know sexy isn't just what you see, yeah
I ain't mad a little game of run around
As long as you can keep up with me If you lack a credit card
Will you never see the shot?
Doctor, doctor, hide the scars
Please, please
Those Hype Williams videos
Taught you how to wear your clothes
Drop it low, touchin' your toes
When did all these good girls decide to be bad?
Dancin' up on the table, gettin' back at your dad
Who's the asshole that told you
That's what you had to do? Yeah
But when did all these good girls decide to be bad?
You know I love your skin, but is it deeper than that?
Don't wanna blame you for it, cause that's what we ask of you
That's what we ask
But when did all these good girls
But when did all these good girls I used to be too bad for the good girls
Now I'm too good for the bad girls, no middle ground
Funny how big cities turn to little towns
When you tend to get around, I think we should sit it down
Girl you way too good to be in here
I see what they don't see and see it clear

I think we should prolly take a little time out
You know, slow it down, clear your mind out
Figure out what you're into
You don't strike me as a club girl, you seem more residential
To keep it real, I just want a bad girl tonight
And a good girl for life, all I seen was potential When did all these good girls decide to be bad?
You know I love your skin, but it's much deeper than that
And gotta thank you for it, for showin' me all of you When did all these good girls decide to be bad?
Dancin' up on the table, gettin' back at your dad
Who's the asshole that told you
That's what you had to do? Yeah
But when did all these good girls decide to be bad?
You know I love your skin, but is it deeper than that?
Don't wanna blame you for it, cause that's what we ask of you
That's what we ask
But when did all these good girls...
