

What If a Woman

Joe

What if a woman had a man on the side
And she never spent time with him
What if a woman said she's working late
And it's always the same excuse
What if a woman took the keys to your whip
Said I'll be right back, don't trip
What if a woman left you home with the kids
Changing diapers and shit, what a twist
Could you stand inside her shoes and walk a mile
(I don't really think so)
Could you hold her down when she doesn't smile
(I don't know a man who could)
What if a woman, what if a woman
(What if a woman)
What if a woman, was just like you
(Yeah, yeah)
What if a woman, what if a woman
What if a woman was just like me
(Try to imagine that)
What if a woman, what if a woman
What if a woman was just like us
(Oh, think about it now)
What if a woman, what if a woman, what if a woman
(Oh yeah)
Could you handle all she does
What if a woman started wearing the pants
Would you feel less of a man and more
What if a woman never wanna settle down
Always wanna run around on the low
You can beg, you can plead, you can cry
She won't be your wife
With your eyes are full of tears
She'll be running the streets
With the girls hanging out tonight
It's the same thing you do to her
Could you stand inside her shoes and walk a mile
(See I don't really think so)
Could you hold her down when she doesn't smile
(I don't know a man who could, no, no)
What if a woman, what if a woman
What if a woman was just like you
(Just like you)
What if a woman, what if a woman
What if a woman, was just like me
(I can't imagine that woman)
What if a woman, what if a woman
What if a woman, was just like us
(What if a woman)
What if a woman, what if a woman, what if a woman

(What if a woman)
Could you handle all she does
(Could you handle it)If the tables were turned around
Would you leave, would you stay, would you drown
If the cards you were dealt were to change
Would you let your hand go up in flamesWhat if a woman, what if a woman
What if a woman was just like you
What if a woman, what if a woman
What if a woman was just like me
(What if a woman)(What if the table suddenly started to turn)
What if a woman, what if a woman
What if a woman was just like that (She'd be the pimp and you the whore)
What if a woman, what if a woman, what if a woman
(Think about it)
Could you handle all she doesWhat if a woman, what if a woman
(What if some night you were sending my)
What if a woman was just like you
What if a woman, what if a woman
What if a woman was just like me(She was to leave and never come back again)
What if a woman, what if a woman
What if a woman was just like you
(Do you think that you can handle [Incomprehensible])
What if a woman, what if a woman, what if a woman
Could you handle all she does(Think about it now, think about it now)
What if a woman, what if a woman
What if a woman was just like you
(Think about it now, think about it now)
What if a woman, what if a woman
What if a woman was just like meWhat if a woman, what if a woman
What if a woman was just like me
