

Believe

Morgan Page

I caught a glimpse of the future
I thought a hint might do Tick tock, few minutes ago
I should've seen the signs years ago
Tried to warn them it was coming
Tried to tell them what I'd seen I saw the towers crumble
I saw the long distance thought
And I could see how you think I'm crazy
But you're the one with no sense at all I want to believe
In the light of a dream
Place that we'd go
World that we know The light of a dream
I want to believe
In the light of a dream
Place that we'd go
World that we know In a layer in between
There is light and a dream
In a place tied to the past
I should've known that it'd never last I saw the people rising
I saw the great vibe
And I could see how you think I'm crazy
But you're the one that tried to run and hide I want to believe
In the light of a dream
Place that we'd go
World that we know The light of a dream
I want to believe
In the light of a dream
Place that we'd go
World that we know In a world gets lost when it gets to be so heavy
How did they get the control?
Is there anyway we can go? Hold my heart in your hand
'Till you squeeze all you can
How you give me life to make me
Hold my heart and you save me I want to, ooh, believe
In the light of a dream
In the place that we'd go
Beyond the world we know I want to believe
In the light of a dream
Place that we'd go
World that we know The light of a dream I want to believe
In the light of a dream
Place that we'd go
World that we know I want to, ooh, believe

In the light of a dream
In the place that we'd go
Beyond the world we know
