

Wrong (Remix) [feat. Lil Tjay]

Luh Kel

Nah Nah Nah Nah Huh Uh Nah Yeah Nah Nah ahh
 Girl my mood changed when you walk through the door
 Before you came there were tears on the floor
 Girl you so perfect i think that its workin
 You gave me your love now i really want more
 Girl you so different, apart from the rest
 Cool i dropped out, I don't really take tests
 You gave me your love now i'm addicted like drugs
 Girl i think you the plug, You the one with the best
 You did me wrong
 You did me wrong
 You did me wrong
 Girl you did me wrong
 You did me wrong
 You did me wro-o-o-ong
 All by my side
 Argue less talk i need you by my side
 You had my back when the gang used to slide
 Now you gone tell me you done with my time
 I thought that i needed you in my life
 All of them times that you talked what you liked
 Girl you was down and you told me you rolled like my rollie
 Im done cause you lied with my guys like nah
 The only plan was to ball
 Remember them times when we fall, but we got up and fought
 I tried to leave you and stall
 Baby I gave you my all, my all, my all
 No calling, road in the back seat, yeah you used to ride like a taxi
 Yeah my heart feel so deep in the black seat,
 My heart feel so deep in the black seat
 Girl my mood changed when you walked through the door
 Before you came there were tears on the floor
 Girl you so perfect I think that its workin'
 You gave me your love now I really want more
 Girl you so different apart from the rest
 Cool I dropped out, I don't really take test
 You gave me your love, I'm addicted like drugs
 Girl I think you the plug, you the one with the best
 You did me wrong, You did me wrong
 You did me wrong, You did me wrong
 Girl you did me wrong, You did me wrong
 You did me wro-o-o-o-n-g
