My country boys just left and theyll come back again

He just bought six next time he buyin ten

Your girl keep callin then she bout to call again

She knockin at the door Im bout to let her in Here she go again we bout to fuck again

(verse 1)

I got a mansion in missouri

Gucci man u trippin'

I got 70 worth of jewelry

Gucci is u really serious?

All these girls are curious

Diamonds on they periods

50 thou my earrings

I dont wanna listen to it

I dont wanna hear it

Tell ya mother listen to it

Tell ya bitch to hear it

30 bricks are plenty good bet my bitch a do it

Think I should or should I not?

Ima truly do it

Yea i got a sweet connect?

mexican assassin try to disrespect me?

Im deep in?

Im beepin?

(hook)(verse 2)

Once a friend not a friend then a friend once again

Cant pretend we grown men must defend once again

Once again behind tinted windows on some rims

In the wind with the trail rims are big tires are thin

I do ya girl like a convicts first day up out the pen

Every night is a movie but my mornins' begin like

Las Vegas I go again

ten thousand I make this ten eight thousand on six to eight

I make or break I play again

Lambo lot I go again

What the fuck I want this time?

Yellow lamb with yellow rims

Winter time wear yellow tims

Come out here well go again?

20 thousand dollars in fuck it order ten more thousand then midnight come back thru again?

Its Gucci(hook)(verse 3)

Its this girl named Nicole who I know since like ten has a major crush on me but I cant be her man

We were flurin after junior high playin like some kids when out of nowhere she kissed the lips of the kid

Now Nicole is a lady somewhere someone want to have but her and the kid?

I would walk the other way when Nicole would cross my path cause I know what she would say and i couldnt help but to laugh

She would ask me for a date and somethin she would love to have

Me take her to the? so we can do it bad sorry Nicole baby but look u dont have a chance

I got 10 grand in every pocket thats the battle of the band?

Im the man(hook)
