

See My Tears

Machine Gun Kelly

Hey, in the rain
Hey, in the rain
Hey, in the rain
Hey, in the rain Every day I, Wake up, to the same shit
In the same house, with the same bricks
In the same clothes, with the same kicks
I might as well be in jail Caged in, stairin' at the wall waitin' for a change but Dad telling me I gotta get a job
Couldn't pay the bills so the lights turned off
Them Cleveland boys got it hard Oh my god, we living like this for too long
Just to lose it all in a week
My people too strong
Get it? Me and my boys be gone
Puffing all week like this the lawn
Me and my boys tired of being here
That is why we're gone
They say we wouldn't amount to nothing, huh Y'all thought we was bluffing, ha?
Fought every temptation shit, I guess I'm David Ruffin huh
Nowadays, we don't gotta do that dirt tell my boys they good And nowadays my little girl won't have to work, moved her out the hood Look man, I've been through it all, and I'ma damned if I got this far
And if I let them strip me of message let these haters take my heart
This for the ones that had it hard, the ones like me, the underdogs This for the ones that waited for them clouds to fall, please god let it You see my tears, in the rain
Underneath it all, we're just the same, same, same You see my tears, in the rain
All around the world it's just the same, same, same
You can see my tears, in the rain
So I let it rain
And they mad that I made it out the city
But if you look I'm still out in the city
Before anything I had cloud in the city
Two other states and never bounced on the city Shout out to everybody that's proud in the city
Everybody cheering in the crowd from the city
Everybody that never had doubts in the city
Cause they know I represent what we about in the city And I'm still laced up, tell the world
that's nothing changed
Till it's hundred dollar bills in my pocket, then nothings change
If my team ain't with me, then I don't wanna thang, tell them I'll go broke before I run out on my game
EST over everything 100 thousand plus, co fan base yea that is us, my songs tattooed on anybody who troubled you we bad as fuck and what?

Nobody gave a shit about for broken mirrors
So I care less about appearance
Just as long as they can hear us We're fearless, we're stupid, we're dealers, we're loser's
We're killers, we're orphan's, we're addicts, we're stealers
We're shooters so kill us
We all what they say we are until conformity hits us Or those clouds from doubt, take them all with us, please god let it
You see my tears, in the rain
Underneath it all, we're just the same, same, same
You see my tears, in the rain
All around the world it's just the same, same, same
You can see my tears, in the rain
So I let it rain
Rain
In the rain
Rain
In the rain
You see my tears, in the rain
Underneath it all, we're just the same, same, same
You see my tears, in the rain
All around the world it's just the same, same, same
You can see my tears, in the rain
