

Run to Her

Mr. Mister

I see myself locked in her arms, she looks inside my soul
She is much too beautiful to ever let go
Time - it passes much too fast, and time - I want to make it last
Ooh, I run to her, I run to her
Yesterday's a vivid dream, she came into my life
The sun was shining brightly, as we talked into the night
Time - how it passes much too fast, time - now I want to make it last
Oh, I run to her, I run, run to her(Solo)
Ooh, I run to her, I run to her, ohhh
