Avail

Going over in my head
What seems like everything
Remembering commitments
That nowadays just blend. I don't know where I'm going
And I don't think that I care
I had my taste wound up misplaced
Bounced off those troubles clear. Did I trip myself up again?
Did I see more than you did?
Did I trip myself up again?
Did I see more than you did? Decisions made without regard
Returning as regret
I knew they could but thought they would
Come crashing with success.
They know nothing about me
And I really doubt they care
But that's alright cause by myself
I do fine anywhere. Did I trip myself up again?
Did I see more than you did?
Did I trip myself up again?
Did I see more than you did? Seems like I shouldn't have pushed it
Hid myself and lost focus for a change
Shouldn't have made myself committed
Got to know that one by now
I'm better off without. Going over in my head
What seems like everything
Remembering commitments
That nowadays just blend.
I don't know where I'm going
And I don't think that I care
I had my taste wound up misplaced
Bounced off those troubles clear. Did I trip myself up again?
Did I see more than you did?
Did I trip myself up again?
Did I see more than you did? Seems like I shouldn't have pushed it
Hid myself and lost focus for a change
Shouldn't have made myself committed
Got to know that one by now
I'm better off without. Seems like I shouldn't have pushed it
Hid myself and lost focus for a change
Shouldn't have made myself committed
Got to know that one by now
I'm better off without.
