

Tired

LCD Soundsystem

Wasted and complacent and you about the same but still i want to get it on with you tonight when i was a little boy i laid down in the grass i'm sure you'd feel the same if i could fuck you here tonight but i'm never as tired as when i'm waking up i'm never as tired as when i'm waking up but it feels like i'm in love again oh it feels like i'm in love again though it feels like i'm in love again with what you do
if we made it happen i'm sure what we would do run outside and fuck someone to show it didn't mean a thing seems it could be simple if i could just grow up never gonna get it now cause i'll never grow
but it feels like i'm in love again
though it feels like i'm in love again
but not with you
(keep on telling myself it's true)
but not with you
(keep on telling myself it's true)
but not with you
(keep on telling myself it's true)
but not with you
(keep on telling myself it's true)
but not with you
(keep on telling myself it's true)
but not with you
(keep on telling myself it's true)
but not with you
(just keep on telling myself it's true)
but not with you
(just keep on telling myself it's true)

(just keep on telling myself it's true)
