

Unrequited Love

Chasing Victory

So write it down in lover's blood
There's gotta be a better way to break this spell
Send out a search party
Have you forgot how to love, how to die?
I see the crosses behind your eyes
When will the fire burn out?
When will it burn out?
Is it after we've covered our tracks?
I'm not going to stay to find out He never asked for much
If the fire burns out will it ever light up again?
Will it ever light up?
And it's been so long since I've seen your eyes this cold
When did you let them step in?
When did you let them take control?
So sound the alarm
There's gotta be a better way to break this spell
Tell the whole world that I left without his love
At the chiming of the bells I've been dreaming of elaborate schemes
Though the love was good for a while
It's been much easier to leave
I've got a new life now
This couldn't have come at a worse time!
I guess you had to find out
About this unrequited love that I deny Why do you attempt on making countless efforts?
(He never asked for much. If the fire goes out...)
When will you give up on this?
(Will it ever light up again? Will it ever light up?)
Why do you attempt on making countless efforts?
(And it's been so long since I've seen your eyes this cold.)
When will you give up on this?
(When did you let them step in? When did you let them take control?)
You say you fell out of love?
You say you fell out of love?
You say you fell out of love?
Well, I call this abandonment! There's gotta be a better way
Tell the whole world that I left without his love
At the chiming of the bells I've been dreaming of elaborate schemes
Though the love was good for a while
It's been much easier to leave
I've got a new life now
This couldn't have come at a worse time!
I guess you had to find out

About this unrequited love that I deny
That I deny, I deny
I call this abandonment
I call this abandonment
I call this abandonment!
