

Moon Over Mexico

Luke Combs

I can still see your blue sky blue eyes hangin' on a mango kiss Hear the waves and the breeze and the Joshua trees is just about as good as it gets Taste the salt on the rim, feel the sand on your skin
And the wild in the wind, like I'm right there again Under a moon over Mexico
Holdin' onto you as the low tide rolls
Whatever that buzz was I ain't felt it since but I can't seem to let it go
There was a shine in the dark,
a flame from a spark, and a lime in a Pacifico
Under a moon over Mexico
The second I left I was kickin' myself 'cause I knew I should've stayed Still tequila love drunk, from us wakin' up under the Cabo palm leaf shade
And it's crazy I know, but I'd give anything to go To you and me on that coast, in the midnight glow
Of a moon over Mexico
Holdin onto you as the low tide rolls
Whatever that buzz was I ain't felt
it since but I can't seem to let it go
There was a shine in the dark,
a flame from a spark, and a lime in a Pacifico
Under a moon over Mexico Taste the salt on the rim, feel the sand on your skin
And the wild in the wind, like I'm right there again
Under a moon over Mexico
Holdin' onto you as the low tide rolls
Whatever that buzz was I ain't felt
it since but I can't seem to let it go
There was a shine in the dark,
a flame from a spark, and a lime in a Pacifico
Under a moon over Mexico
Under a moon over Mexico
Over Mexico
