

The One

Medina

you said so many things so many times before all your empty words were just a painful cover you always promised me that it would always be together, you & i would be forever i was too blind to see you had a hold on me and i fell for every lie, you were so clever i tried so hard to read the message in your eyes but i wont let go of what we have togetherthere was a time when i was all alone i never opened up until we found each other tell me why this has to be so hard right now i know that we belong right here together even if we hurt each other so and even when you lie,
I just close my eyes and let it go not afraid to let all my feelings show you'll always be the one, one, one, one even if i just wanna run away and even if i hate all the stupid silly words you say cant deny with you is where i wanna stay cuz baby u're the one, one, one, one, oneyeahh when you say the words you know i wanna hear i forget all the pain that i was feeling i want those yesterdays to slowly disappear so what u did to me ive already forgiven you're not the one to blame for all our memories and that was long before we ever got together you know its you, i guess that it will always be cuz you and i belong to one another there was a time when i was all alone i never opened up until we found each other
and now i know that we belong right here togethereven if we hurt each other so
and even when you lie,
and even if i hate all the stupid silly words you say
cant deny with you is where i wanna stay cuz baby u're the one, one, one, one, oneoehwww oh ohh oehwwwthere was a time when i was all alone
i never opened up until we found each other

and now i know that we belong right here together, babyyoehw heyy yeahh i'm not afraid to let all my feelings show you'll always be the one, one, one, one and even if i just wanna run away
and even if i hate all the stupid silly words you say cant deny with you is where i wanna stay cuz baby u're the one, one, one, one, one
