Time waits for no man
You gotta boss up man
It's time to stop playing around, being lazy nigga
Get up and get to the money nigga

Believe in your motherfucking self nigga
Motivation bruh Started off with nothing, now I'm bossed up
Started in the gutter now I'm bossed up
Got it out the mud now I'm flossed up

See me, I'm what a drug dealer dream about
Fucking bad bitches, backing beamers out
If niggas want some smoke we pull them steamers out
I be so damn fresh, I cashed the cleaners out
See niggas taking shots but I'm so bulletproff
I just laugh at 'em, couple Bentley coupe
I swear I be so high I gotta loose the roof
See niggas gotta lie, they know I'm the truth
See where I'm from nobody gives a fuck about you
I know rappers, I know trappers, I know real clappers
If you ain't getting money nigga then you hustle backwards
Choppers on the backseat if you want some action
Started off with nothing, now I'm bossed up

 They playing tough but they ain't saying much about the captain
 My niggas bout that action
 You [??] your bitch heard about the thing I'm packing
 I don't care about no fashion, I'm a writer not a rapper
 No day moving past us, niggas moving backwards
 I ain't worried bout the pussy I'm just wondering where the cash is
 I just do it different, I just made my cake the fastest
 If a nigga tripping get a thing and then we blast it
 I just rolled some weed and fucked your bitch, thats why I'm laughing
