

Coffee

Sylvan Esso

True, it's a dance, we know the moves
The bow, the dip, the woo
Though the words are true
The state is old news
Wrap me in your arms I can't feel it but
Rock me in your arms
I can't feel it but
Get up, get down Get up, get down
Feel the turn of the rotation and stop
see the next one waiting
Get up, get down
Get up, get down
Get up
Sentiment's the same but the pair of feet change
I know my words will dry upon my skin
Just like a name I remember hearing
Wild winters, warm coffee
Mom's gone, do you love me?
Blazing summer, cold coffee
Baby's gone, do you love me?
Wrap me in your arms
I can't feel it but
Rock me in your arms
I can't feel it but
Get up, get down Get up, get down
Feel the turn of rotation
And stop, see the next one waiting
Get up, get down
Get up, get down
Get up
Sentiment's the same, but the pair of feet change
Get up, get down
Ain't all right now
Get up
See the next one waiting
Get up, get down Get up, get down
Get up
Sentiment's the same, but the pair of feet change.
My baby does the hanky panky
My baby does
My baby does the hanky panky
My baby does

My baby does the hanky panky My baby does
Get up, get down Get up, get down
Feel the turn of rotation And stop, see the next one waiting
Get up, get down Get up, get down
Get up
Sentiment's the same, but the pair of feet change
Get up, get down
Ain't all right now!
Get up
Get up, get down
Get up
Sentiment's the same, but the pair of feet change
