

Ain't Back Yet

Kenny Chesney

I heard a song 'bout a ramblin' man
Bought a guitar and I started a band
I got a gig at the local Am Vet
I was gone and I ain't back yet '69 bored, out and jacked up
A quarter mile that was all it was
I burned the cool off of that Corvette
And I was gone and I ain't back yet Lookin' back at the moments, black and white
I wouldn't change a thing that changed my life
For the worse, for the better
Man, I was gone, gone forever
She was a cut offs pepper sauce queen
Man, we were matches and gasoline
First taste of love never will forget
I was gone and I ain't back yet
I was gone, gone and I ain't back yet Lookin' back at the moments, black white
I wouldn't change a thing that changed my life
For the worse, for the better
Man, I was gone, gone forever The laughs, the smiles, the trials, the tears
It's hard to hate what got me here
What got me here She was a straight out of Hollywood smile
We missed it all by a country mill
Went out one night for some cigarettes
And I was gone and I ain't back yet
I was gone, gone and I ain't back yet
I was gone and I ain't back
Ain't back, ain't back yet I was gone and I ain't back yet
I was gone and I ain't back yet
I was gone, gone and I ain't back yet
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://greatlyrics.net/>