

Fare Thee Well (Dink's Song)

Oscar Isaac

If I had wings like Noah's dove
I'd fly the river to the one that I love
Fare thee well, my honey fare thee well I had a man, who was long and tall
He moved his body like a cannon ball
Fare thee well, my honey, fare thee well I remember one evening in the pouring rain
And in my heart there was an aching pain
Fare thee well, my honey, fare thee well Muddy river runs muddy and wild
You can't give a bloody for my unborn child
Fare thee well, my honey, fare thee well
Just as sure as the birds are flying high
Life ain't worth living if you ain't with the man you love
Fare thee well, my honey, fare thee well
