

All I Know (feat. PJ)

Boosie Badazz

When you loved like I'm loved
Somebody got to hate ya
It don't surprise me at all cause I'ma street goon
I'm doing big things going big places
This what I do Wake up everyday and hustle my nigga that's all I know
Ain't surprised by you hating my nigga that's all you know
And I'm going lots of places but I ain't going broke
Cause putting money over niggas and bitches that's all I know
That's all I know
Don't care what you say about me (nah)
Don't care how you feel about me (nah)
Drag my name through the mug
Guess what? I'm bout to kill these streets
Going places you will never see
Someone you will never be
Mama say get some rest
I might miss a check so I never sleep
Loyalty
Loyalty
That's all I know
Trust me you don't want war with me cause war is all I know
Went from the block to hip hop
Bottom to the tip top
I can't go broke I'm too hot
You hating on me cause you not
They hated Jesus so you know they gon hate me cause of my power
Its my time, my grind, my gift, my hour
This was God's plan, grind hard
Everyday I wake up she wanted me to miss my flight
I got to go to get my cake up
So I
Wake up everyday and hustle my nigga that's all I know
Ain't surprised by you hating my nigga that's all you know
And I'm going lots of places but I ain't going broke
Cause putting money over niggas and bitches that's all I know
Hey, hey
That's all I know
Hey, my nigga that's all I know
And I'm going lots of places but I ain't going broke
Cause putting money over niggas and bitches that's all I know
Hey This all I know

I hustle hard
 I shine bright
 Let all these shoot shooting people stay on their guide-light
 Money over niggas and I hate to the dick riding type
 Hating people textin' to get a spot in the limelight
 Pop them bottles I'ma grind this show
 Come back off tour and grind some more
 From my heart it ain't none to cut that bitch off
 That ain't my ho
 Hustle so I don't struggle nigga that's all I know
 You in everybody business you bitches that's why you broke
 While y'all criticizin' my name, I'm on a camel in Dubai
 If they say 'sky's the limit,' guess what, then I'm the sky
 Real music, I ain't gotta lie, tears of joy run down my eye
 You hatin' a nigga who come from nothin', my nigga I ain't surprised, I Wake up everyday and hustle my nigga that's all I know
 Ain't surprised by you hating my nigga that's all you know
 And I'm going lots of places but I ain't going broke
 Cause putting money over niggas and bitches that's all I know
 Hey, hey
 That's all I know
 Hey, my nigga that's all I know
 And I'm going lots of places but I ain't going broke
 Cause putting money over niggas and bitches that's all I know That's all I know
 That money bag
 That's all I know
 Show up, show out and show my ass
 That's all I know
 People spreading lies on ya ol' lying ass ho
 Misery loves company so hating
 That's all you know
 And they say, they say that I won't coming home
 They say, they say that I won't coming home
 I say, I say so many done me wrong
 Now millions to the ceiling
 Ian tripping ha ha Wake up everyday and hustle my nigga that's all I know
 Ain't surprised by you hating my nigga that's all you know
 And I'm going lots of places but I ain't going broke
 Cause putting money over niggas and bitches that's all I know
 Hey, hey
 That's all I know
 Hey, my nigga that's all I know
 And I'm going lots of places but I ain't going broke
 Cause putting money over niggas and bitches that's all I know
 Hey
