

Know It All

Rebelution

Mr. know it all tell me why you always hide behind the wall
In hindsight it's someone else's fault
Talking real big but we know you're small
You talk big, man, you're bound to fall
You're comments leaving us appalled
Despite your negativity we'll have a ball
Positivity will trump them all
Nothing good to say, don't say it at all
Nothing good to say, don't say it at all
Don't say it at all
You're trying to prove a point
Don't say it at all, Don't say it at all
Go on change your ways
You don't have to try and explain what you say
You're trying to prove a point but nothing stays
Open up your mind
Think you know it all
But every time you're leaving me amazed
Cuz in your mind it's your time we waste
Acting real cool but you're filled with hate
You fire shots i remain un-phased
You're never gonna win this race
Despite your negativity we'll keep our pace
Positivity will trump them all
Nothing good to say, don't say it at all
Nothing good to say, don't say it at all
Don't say it at all
You're trying to prove a point
Don't say it at all
Don't say it at all
Go on change your ways
You don't have to try and explain what you say
You're trying to prove a point but nothing stays
Open up your mind.
