

Consider Me Gone

Reba McEntire

Every time I turn the conversation to something deeper than the weather
I can feel you
all but shuttin' down.
And when I need an explanation
for the silence You just tell me
you don't wanna talk about it now. What you're not sayin' is comin' in loud and clear We're at a crossroads here...
If I'm not the one thing you can't stand to lose
If I'm not that arrow to the heart of you
If you don't get drunk on my kiss
If you think you can do better than this
Then I guess we're done
Let's not drag this on
Consider me gone.
...With you i've always been wide open
like a window
or an ocean
There is nothing I've ever tried to hide.
So when you leave me not knowin'
where you're goin'
I start thinkin' that we're lookin'
we're lookin' at goodbye.
How about a strong shot of honesty. Don't you owe that to me...
If I'm not the one thing you can't stand to lose
If I'm not that arrow to the heart of you
If you don't get drunk on my kiss
If you think you can do better than this
Then I guess we're done.
Let's not drag this on.
Consider me gone. Consider me a memory.
Consider me the past.
Consider me a smile in an old photograph
Someone who used to make you laugh.
...If I'm not the one thing you can't stand to lose
If I'm not that arrow to the heart of you
Then I guess we're done.
Let's not drag this on.
Consider me gone.
Consider me gone.

Consider me gone.
Just consider me gone.

...
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://greatlyrics.net/>