

Picture Perfect

Sevendust

I think the last was the first time
I thought you'd never
Ask me about it at all
You never really thought
That I'd be blaming you
I wish you hadn't noticed
The scars that are left I prayed forever
Hopelessly I never thought I'd see A picture perfect point of view
There's nothing left to help me get
Through all the things I did to you
I think I finally had it coming
So symptomatic that you pushed me
Right down to the floor
I finally found a reason to be living
It's so sad that the cure
Took way too long I prayed forever
Hopelessly I never thought I'd see A picture perfect point of view
There's nothing left to help me get
Through all the things I did to you
Forgive me for today
A picture perfect point of view
There's nothing left to help me get
Through all the things I did to you
Forgive me for today
There's always something in the way
I swear there's no more silver lining
Cause I'm all out, cause I'm all out
Of breath A picture perfect point of view
There's nothing left to help me get
Through all the things I did to you
Forgive me for today A picture perfect point of view
There's nothing left to help me get
Through all the things I did to you

Lyrics provided by <http://greatlyrics.net/>