Gym Class Heroes

I'm a lover not a fighter
But every night you decide to start some shit
I'm sick and tired of being so sick and tired
Coming home from tour you yelling
Before I get through the door
With that so and so said this and that Why you still with me for?
Going through my phone I made you feel like a fool
Screaming, "Who the fuck is Alex?"
When Alexander's my dude
Sometimes I think you do it simply 'cause your bored
If you really love me we'd be making love not war
But you'd rather waste the little time we do have Going back and forth, are you sorry now? Well, too bad
I can't believe I wasted all this fucking time
Instead of fighting with you I could have been writing rhymes or Hanging out Stitch and watching 'Up' or something
You never tried to meet me half way
You played these little immature ass games
I tried to be the best man I can
But you were too dumb to understand
That I can have any girl but I stayed with you
I guess everybody plays the fool, yeah
Now you think you're coming back to me
But that's something that I just don't see
I thought this was forever the thought of leaving you never
But you gotta kick rocks 'cause your screaming's leaving my head hurt
Before you go there's something that you should know
I'm taking everything I bought and you better leave me my red shirt
Don't even think of twisting this to make it my fault
Or try to tell me you forgot to take your Midol
'Cause you ain't blaming this one on your period
And you can save the song and dance 'cause I'm gone, period
Huh? What? Wait? Nope, I'm not hearing it
The crash dummy finally grabbed the wheel and now he's steering it
Oh, dear God, what a disaster
And I probably shoulda done something faster
Wait, you know what, you can kiss my ass
You've been dropped from the label and I'm keeping your masters Travie, you're a bastard, call me what you want to Whatever makes you feel better, I don't want you
P.S. I froze all your accounts and uh, leave that ring on the counter
You never tried to meet me half way
You played these little immature ass games
I tried to be the best man I can
But you were too dumb to understand
That I can have any girl but I stayed with you
I guess everybody plays the fool, yeah
Now you think you're coming back to me

But that's something that I just don't see You never tried to meet me half way
You played these little immature ass games
I tried to be the best man I can
But you were too dumb to understand That I can have any girl but I stayed with you
I guess everybody plays the fool, yeah
Now you think you're coming back to me
But that's something that I just don't see Now you think you're coming back to me
But that's something that I just don't see
