

Bear with Me (feat. Marz Ferrer)

Propaganda

I could tell the future, we're a broken record
 I'ma say something then I'm gon' regret it
 And you'll put up a wall and I'ma try to wreck it
 Love is not love if it's never been tested Why couldn't you just hug me?
 Look me in the eyes and tell me love is lovely
 Ribbons in the sky that Stevie Nicks flung me
 Sing lullabies to the son you brung me
 But your eyes just won't keep they mouth shut
 Wait a minute, how come you get to choose our outcome?
 It's quite a tussle, have we become that couple
 Where our love is just comfortable?
 And you used to teach me to be a better me
 And I would front like my feet were tree trunks
 I'm so sorry, I promise kiss with eucalyptus
 With all of its problems, I don't never wanna miss this
 I could tell the future, we're a broken record
 I'ma say something then I'm gon' regret it
 And you'll put up a wall and I'ma try to wreck it
 Love is not love if it's never been tested Bear with me as we wander through the dark
 Take care of me, illuminate my heart
 Baby, bear with me as we wander through the dark
 Take care, take care, illuminate my heart And the love that was once a mighty California redwood's
 A piss-poor version of a sycamore in Singapore
 Sing a poor hymn makes me sick more than lactose
 Sit and pour another shot of Maker's 'til I'm sick more
 I should take you out to Liverpool to live a more exciting life
 Instead I'm in my inbox trying to gig some more
 You give more, you get more and I'm just trying to get more
 Wink-wink, in the end, I married my best friend
 But think-think the thrill is gone but not forgotten
 Girl, you spoiled rotten, only cowards quit, it ain't an option
 I'm booking me a red-eye with a case of "I'm sorry"
 In my carry-on in hopes to share the pillow that you rest on
 I could tell the future, we're a broken record
 I'ma say something then I'm gon' regret it
 And you'll put up a wall and I'ma try to wreck it
 Love is not love if it's never been tested Bear with me as we wander through the dark
 Take care of me, illuminate my heart
 Baby, bear with me as we wander through the dark
 Take care, take care, illuminate my heart Bear with me, bear with me
 Oh, bear with me
