

Txtin' (feat. Alkaline)

WSTRN

Oooh
You decide
You decide
Only you decide
Txtin', txtin', txtin'
Juggling me all over your phone all night (nah, nah, nah)
It's your love your juggling me
You don't know that you been all mine (nah, nah, nah)
I'm the only one you wanted (nah, nah, nah)
I can follow where your heart is
All night 'till the morning
Nah, nah, nah, nah, nah
We got about three hours, leave you phone alone
He be guessing what goes down, when we be all alone
So we flexin, flexin, flexin, come from the Wstrn
Tell him stop txtin', txtin, troubling you
I'm fly, he's on the pest ting
Interesting, money I forgot what I was spending
Stepped in, bowling like the 10-pin
Groovy, moving how I spend it, peng ting named Maddison
But I want the bredrin
Nah, nah, now
I'm paranoid, I gots to pat it down
I be the man like zaga zow
I said I be the man like zaga zow, zaga zow
Txtin', txtin', txtin'
Juggling me all over your phone all night (nah, nah, nah)
It's your love your juggling me
You don't know that you been all mine (nah, nah, nah)
I'm the only one you wanted (nah, nah, nah)
I can follow where your heart is
All night 'till the morning
Nah, nah, nah, nah, nah
We got about three hours, leave you phone alone
He be guessing what goes down, when we be all alone
Leave me on phone light, every time we go live on stage, that's the way we live

Make you blow out di candles then you make your wishes
Know you have your man but guess what, something have to give

Too bad she don't want you

Still banging off a phone like a loser
When you should be banging on the roads with a shooter

You don't know that you been all mine (nah, nah, nah)
I'm the only one you wanted (nah, nah, nah)
I can follow where your heart is
All night 'till the morning
Nah, nah, nah, nah, nah
We got about three hours, leave you phone alone
He be guessing what goes down, when we be all alone
We got about three hours, leave you phone alone
