

Cheating Myself

School Boy Humor

We'll sing just a little bit louder
And we won't stop till she can't handle it.
We'll sing just a little bit slower
So she'll hang on to every single word. Over these past few years I feel like I've been cheating myself;
I'm working hard all the time,
You take the easy way out
Over these past few years I've tasted who you're going to be;
Candy coated on top,
But so bitter underneath
Uh oh, Uh oh
He's still watching,
And Oh no, Oh no
She's undressing
Him with her eyes, wasting his time
No no no, and I know that she'll never change And uh oh, uh oh
No one said it didn't hurt
And everybody knows good things take a little work,
So don't go givin
Up on the one,
The one you love. Over these past few years we've driven right into a dead end,
And we'll keep spinning our tires, until one of us gives in.
And we're approaching the question that I feel we should ask,
Should we just catch different rides, or just keep fixing the flats?
Uh oh, uh oh
He's still watching,
And Oh no, Oh no
She's undressing
Him with her eyes, wasting his time
No no no, and I know that she'll never change,
And uh oh, uh oh
No one said it didn't hurt
And everybody knows good things take a little work,
So don't go givin
Up on the one,
The one you lovee We'll sing just a little bit louder,
And we won't stop till she can't handle it.
We'll sing just a little bit slower,
So she'll hang on to every single word. So close your eyes girl, and tell me what you see
The lives that we've created, were all because of me.
So listen closely girl, cause our future is at stake
The reason we are ending is because I give, you take.

Close your eyes, and tell me what you see
A problem that's unchanging, a past that's haunting me. Uh oh, Uh oh
He's still watching
Oh no, Oh no
She's undressing
Him with her eyes, wasting his time,
No no no (a past that's haunting me)
And uh oh, uh oh
No one said it didn't hurt
And everybody knows good things take a little work,
So don't go givin
Up on the one,
The one you love
The oneeeee, the one you love
The oneeeee, the one you love
The oneeeee, the one you love.
