

Tilted

Sugar

I only do these things to freak you out
Wanted you to doubt me
Well, I believe you, do I believe you? I try to block you out to hear myself
I can't believe I'm thinking to myself
Would I leave you in such suspense? I let it go and go and go
But what you're thinking through the silence
I really wish you understood
A couple of words get so much mileage I never felt an urge to say a word
Listen to the din of
Other people closing in on me, I lay in bed
And think of words that you should hear
I fall asleep and then they disappear
A fall from grace, from memory I hear a voice inside the silence
Speak your peace and all's forgotten
I hear the static on the line
Remember how this all got started Remember, remember it's tilted
Remember it's tilted
Turn it tilted, I need help it's tilted
Turn it tilted, I need help it's tilted I turn away, a minute disappears
Shame when I don't hear
What you're thinking, tell me what you're thinking? You take it out on me
You're not flaking out on me, are you?
Turn it tilted, hey wait a minute
I never wanted you to be upset
But I can see you're trying to forget
What was said, yeah, what was said
Don't try to hang me up again
Don't try to hang up on me wait up Turn it tilted, oh, I need help it's Remember, remember, it's tilted
Remember it's tilted [Incomprehensible]
If thou wouldst believe, thou would see the glory of God
I'm going to pray a prayer that's going to bless your heart
Amen that's going to minister to you
In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ
