

School Me

Gerald Levert

The bell is ringing
Can't you feel it, baby?
Can't you feel it baby? Come on, come on
Can't you feel it, baby?
Can't you feel that, baby? In my new life I met plenty of girls
But none that make me wanna do
The things you make me do Said that I wanna learn
What makes you feel good
See Lord knows I tried to keep you
Satisfied the best way I could, baby See no woman has laid love down on me
The way that you laid it on me
Keep on laying it on me, baby
And I wanna learn all the things
To keep you occupied
I wanna give you my time, baby See, you be the teacher
I won't be the fool, baby
I did my homework, baby
And I'm ready for school You be the principal
I'll follow the rules
I did my homework, baby
And I'm ready for school Come on and school me, baby
Won't you teach me, baby
Show me, baby
School me, baby
I'll take notes so I can remember
All the things that I do to make you scream
Tell me what you like 'cause I'm willing and able
I can fulfill your every dream, baby See no woman has ever made me wanna break down
And give her everything I have to offer and even more See you're the kind of girl that'll make a man
Wanna give all this money
Give up his cars, all of his dreams
So baby, why don't you show me? Said see, you be the teacher
I won't be the fool
I did my homework, baby
And I'm ready for school You be the principal
I'll follow your rules
I did my homework, baby
And I'm ready for school You be the teacher
I won't be the fool
I did my homework, baby
And I'm ready for school You be the principal

I'll follow your rules
I did my homework, baby
And I'm ready for school School me, baby
Teach me, baby
(Come on baby)
Show me, baby
(Can't you feel the bell?)
School me, baby
(Can't you feel the bell?) Come on help me, baby
Why don't you work me, baby?
Do me, baby
Show me, show me, hey You be the teacher
I won't be the fool
And I'm ready for school You be the principal
And I'm ready for school You be the teacher You be the teacher
I won't be the fool
And I'm ready for school
