

Beautiful

Sarah Brightman

If you can depend
On certainty
Count it out and weigh it up again
You can be sure
You've reached the end
And still you don't feelDo you know you're beautiful
Do you know you're beautiful
Do you know you're beautiful
You are, yes you are, yes you are
If you can ignore
What you've become
Take it out and see it die again
You can be here
For who's a friend
And still you don't feelDo you know you're beautiful
Do you know you're beautiful
Do you know you're beautiful
You are, yes you are, yes you areInnermost thoughts
Will be understood and
You can have all you need
Do you know, you're beautiful, do you know about anything
Do you know, you're beautiful, do you know about anyone
Do you know you're beautiful
You are, yes you are, yes you are
