

Ghost of Karelia

Mastodon

Wrathful ones, nine eyes gaze
Holding skulls
Filled and laced
With human blood Wrathful ones, nine eyes gaze
Holding skulls
Filled and laced
With human blood Shades of darkened sky
Emptiness
Twilight holding through
Offering Lie in zenith
Bull's bloodshot eye
Flattened portrait
Of night sky
Feel crust hum
Facing the north
Vapor space Between Heaven and Earth
Wisdom and the knower
A planet collide
Divisible we fall Hear dirt waves
Wading forth
Vapor space How long has it been
Since we flew through the shadows?
I have walked on
Many other planets How long has it been
Since we flew through the shadows?
I have walked on
Many other planets
Sinister twin
Choking on fear
Bonded iron
Sink to the core Hear dirt waves
Wading forth
Vapor space Shades of darkened skies
Emptiness
Twilight holding through
Offering Wrathful ones, nine eyes gaze
Holding skulls
Filled and laced
With human blood
