

Rock Me

Liz Phair

Oh baby you're young, but that's ok
What's give or take 9 years anyway?
I'll bet you a cigarette you won't regret my time
I wanna be with a guy like you
So uncomplicated, so in tune
Just take off my dress
Let's mess with everybody's mind
I gotta tell youBaby baby baby if it's alright
Want you to rock me all night
Baby baby if it's alright
Want you to rock me all night
All night, yeah
Rock me all night
Hey yeah yeah, hey yeah yeah
I wanna play X-Box on your floor
Say hi to your roommate whose next door
You don't have a dime
But i don't mind, who gives a damn?
Your record collection don't exist
You don't even know who Liz Phair is
Your potential with no credentials
Your mother taught you how to be a sensitive man
I gotta tell youBaby baby baby if it's alright
Want you to rock me all night
Baby baby if it's alright
Want you to rock me all night
All night, yeah
Rock me all night
Hey yeah yeah
I've been waiting all my life for
Hey yea yea
For this feeling
Who'dve guessed you could
Rock me all night
Rock me all nightYou think I'm a genius
Think I'm cool
I'm starting to think that young guys rule
Oh God, let me save you
I might change you
And I might change my mindBaby baby baby if it's alright
Want you to rock me all night
Baby baby if it's alright

Want you to rock me all night
All night, yea
Rock me all night
