She said now and again (but tonight I'm aiming to please)
I can love you long long time (but my love is coming with fees)
I said come on girl quite playing (you know your coming with me)
And when the music bash my heart beatin faster
Until she turned, tugged on my shirt so I followed
To a black room; were she at?
Oh, she's there in a stance then she held out her hand and said Gimme pound gimme pound
