

Where Do We Go

LION BABE

Lying on the bathroom floor
Paint a picture in my mind
All my tears are out the door
Times have changed, but I'll be fine
Unlock all your secrets that matter
Found a new part of me
I don't wanna be a question, no
I just wanna be the word Cause a love like mine can't shine just fine
Without you baby (without you baby)
But a feeling this strong might prove me wrong
Cause I want you, baby
So where do we go?
Where do we go from here?
Tell me, where do we go?
Where do we go from here?
Tell me Waiting into your raising hair
Waiting til you miss my thighs
And look at me like I'm your queen
The only one who's on your side
Don't tell me you want me
Just show me, show me, show me
I don't wanna be a reason, no
I just wanna be the one Cause a love like mine can't shine just fine
Without you baby (without you baby)
But a feeling this strong might prove me wrong
Cause I want you, baby
So where do we go?
Where do we go from here?
Tell me
Where do we go?
Where do we go from here?
Tell me Left to turn you
Left to turn you on
Left to turn you
Left to turn you on Cause a love like mine can't shine just fine
Without you baby (without you baby)
But a feeling this strong might prove me wrong
Cause I want you, baby So where do we go?

Where do we go from here? (here)
Tell me, where do we go?
Where do we go from here? (where do we go from here?)
Tell me
Where do we go? (I want to take you, I want to take you home)
Where do we go from here?
Tell me
Where do we go? (I want to take you, I want to take you home)
Where do we go from here?
Tell me
