

Just Give Me Jesus

Unspoken

I work so hard
Trying to open every door
Search near and farTurning over every stone
I close my eyes
Still I find no rest
No rest
For a restless heartAll I've been chasing
Put in my faith in
Let it fade
Let it break into pieces
Just give me Jesus (Jesus)
Just give me Jesus (Jesus)
There's nothing I desire
That can't be found in You
You're everything that I've ever needed
Just give me JesusTake all my pride
My dreams my plans
This house I've built
On trouble sand
If I gain the world
It would never be
It could never be enoughJust give me Jesus (Jesus)
Just give me Jesus (Jesus)
There's nothing I desire
That can't be found in You
You're everything that I've ever needed
Just give me Jesus
All of my searching
Trying to be perfect
All the fears all the lies I've believe in
All I've been chasing
Put in my faith in
Let it fade, let it fall into piecesJust give me Jesus (Jesus)
Just give me Jesus (Jesus)
There's nothing I desire
That can't be found in You
You're everything that I've ever needed
Just give me Jesus
Just give me JesusThere's nothing I desire
That can't be found in You
You're everything that I've ever needed
Just give me Jesus

Just give me Jesus
