

Think We're Alone

Is Tropical

Never heard it colder
Even too cold for me
The fact that it matters
Didn't sit right with me
And I was like oh, right, yeah
You've got my ear
Your man zodiac didn't warn you
Forseeable's not foreseen
The pastimes set passings
Also cushions me
And I was like oh, right, yeah
I think we're alone
I think we're alone
I've never seen
Anyone talk harder
You chipped away at me
At first I was a boulder
Now brittle bones in need
And I was like oh, right, yeah
I think we're alone
I think we're alone
And I was like oh, right, yeah
You've got my ear
I think we're alone
I think we're alone
And I was like oh, right, yeah
You've got my ear
And I was like oh, right, yeah
You've got my ear
