

Scotty Says

Courtney Barnett

In my wallet is a photo of you
The day we split I ripped it in two
Stuck it back together with glue.
Tear my posters down from the wall
Don't wanna worship no dead heroes
Everything I owned I sold.
I got lost somewhere between here and there,
I'm not sure what the town was called.
In my pocket is a bottle of blue
Drink it when I'm feeling misconstrued
Don't like the taste but I like the overview.
I made a lot of money in my days
Spent it all on the current craze
I don't see no need to save.
I got lost somewhere between here and there,
I'm not sure what the town was called.
