

Penance

Device

penance in the perfect dark, a botticellian angel exists the elusive partner puts her key in my hand a fairly simple gesture, shrouded in evil as she distorts, it becomes easy to understand lost in her piercing eyes as everything around me, diesch:
well, can you make the nightmares go away can you pull the demon from inside?
will penance make the nightmares go away?
and save me from this endless night in the choking dark, i try to move, i'm unable a hundred thousand moving creatures, tickle my flesh i feel the heat, it's getting harder to breathe... i feel the panic taking hold, for i'm beginning to understand.
the only way i'll be saved is if someone breaks into my gravech:br:
don't need it, don't want it no more sedation, no more sedation eradicate this endless aching insideoutro chorus:
