

Drunk Girl

Pepper

hey, it's been a long time love since i've seen you around you've made a few mistakes but you've reached a higher ground how long will you stay and will we watch the sun rise oh i see your seas and the tide is getting high and i don't believe those screaming words you say and i don't believe that you go both ways and oh, the only reason you're here with me is cuz i love a drunk girl [chorus:]
oh oh oh oh oh yea
and you're just a drunk girl
oh oh oh oh oh yea
and i love a drunk girl am i the one to save you love? cuz you're just that drunk girl oh oh oh oh yea, uh now don't i make you feel nice how i remembered your name remember back in school when you pushed me thru the rain well now i want you to feel that there's no safer place i'll hold your hair for you and pull the toilet from your face and my friends don't believe that that's all it takes and your girls can't believe that i could be that mistake but oh! the only reason you're here with me is cuz i love a drunk girl [chorus] you try to kiss me baby you're screaming let me lady you're running hot and heavy most people think you're crazy i'm trying to keep it steady you're wet and wreckless honey don't spit out on me lady because i need you ready and i always knew it would come out this and in the morning i've got you off my list but oh, the only reason you were with me is you're just a drunk girl [chorus]
